

I see no reasonable reason why XM radio should not be allowed to provide local and weather broadcasts, like local AM and FM stations. This service has been paid for by subscribers, and doesn't interfere with other sources of information. I urge you to reject this blatant attempt to stifle competition.
Sincerely, Richard Biggs